

JUSTICE SUCCESS STORY

Sapna Regaining Custody of Minors Through Legal Aid

A Hindu girl saw a drastic change in her life after marriage. Sapna, a resident of Sukkur, who belonged to the Hindu Bagri community married Satram 10-11 years ago. Only after a few months of what seemed like a happy marriage, Satram's behavior towards Sapna changed drastically. This behavior not only included mistreatment but escalated to physical abuse. Despite Sapna's efforts to maintain a loving and respectful relationship, Satram not only continued domestic abuse but also fell into bad company and drug addictions.

A year ago, Satram's abuse escalated to the point where he threw out Sapna and their children. Sapna shifted to her parent's place where Satram forcefully snatch their children away.

After this frightful incident, Sapna was devastated and approached Satram and his family, pleading for the return of her children's custody. However, her pleas were totally ignored.

During this distressing time, Sapna came across the Legal Aid Society on her social media account and decided to visit our regional office in Sukkur to seek legal assistance.

Advocate Kamran Ali Samo took this case and under his guidance, Sapna filed a criminal miscellaneous application under Section 491 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cr. P.C) before the District & Session Judge in Shikarpur.

The court promptly issued a notice to Satram demanding the safe production of the minors on the next hearing date.

With Advocate Kamran's help, the case was solved quickly and Sapna successfully got custody of her children. She thanked us for our support in ensuring justice and reuniting her with her children within 10 days.
