

JUSTICE SUCCESS STORY

Custody of a 10-month-old infant

Imrana, married to Naidam Hussain did not know of the difficulties she would face just after a few months into her marriage. Her life became miserable due to interventions in her personal matters from her in-laws. Even after she gave birth to her baby girl, Fareeza, the humiliation and torture from her husband and in-laws continued.

On 17th July 2023, her husband and in-laws raised a meaningless issue on the topic of tea. Imrana was thrown out of her house after being humiliated and tortured. Moreover, her 10-month-old baby girl was snatched from her after Naidam orally divorced her.

Tired, frustrated, and traumatized, Imrana went back to her parent's house and narrated the entire story to them. Her parents requested Naidam's family to take Imrana back but they had made their decision and were not willing to compromise.

Her family decided to remain silent on this matter and avoid going to court however, Imrana's friend connected her to the women's complaint center in-charge, Ms. Zaib-un-Nisa who further connected her to Legal Aid Society's advocate, Mr. Majid Ali.

Our advocate filed a CRPC application on the same date and finalized a date in the Court of Session for her husband to produce their daughter on the date of the hearing. Imrana got her daughter's custody and won the case. She was thankful to Advocate Majid Ali for owning her case and resolving it.

